

SPEECHES TO START SUFFRAGISTS' MARCH

Mrs. Josepha Whitney and Mrs. di Whitehouse, Visiting Clubwomen, Will Talk.

Mrs. Josepha Whitney and Mrs. Nordi Whitehouse, clubwomen of New York and New York respectively, are meeting which the clubwomen will hold the Public Library at 1 o'clock Tuesday, immediately before they start for the White House, to put the suffrage up to the President and ask aid.

Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, who is to lead the procession, will preside at the mass meeting, and will also introduce the members of the delegation to the President when they reach the White House.
The Washington Chapter of the W. C.
T. U. at its quarterly convention yesterday, voted to join the delegation.
Following are some of the latest women to add their names to the list of those who will march to the White House: Mrs. Isabella Webb Parks, Mrs.
Alice Hollows, Mrs. M. H. Tattis, Mrs.
Neville C. Davis, Mrs. H. C. Haven, Mrs. W. H. Cawthron, Dr. Esther C.
McCarthy, Mrs. William Jibb, Mrs. J.
Proctor, Mrs. Roy T. Fowkes, Mrs.
William H. Chestman, Mrs. Ely Bryant, Mrs. Grace Spencer, and Mrs. Philip S.
Steele.

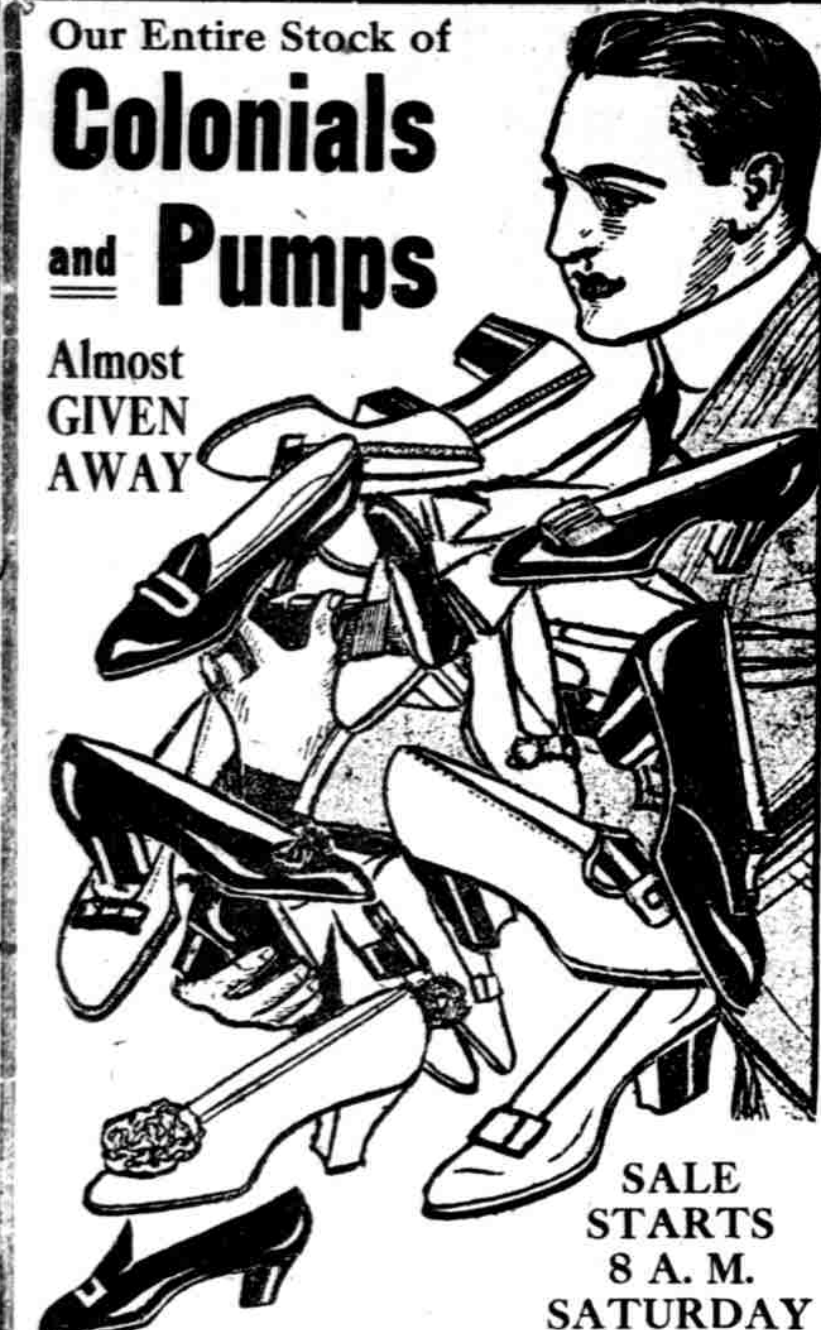

Venezuela Fears Revolt.
WILLEMSTED, Curacao, June 25.— Strict control over incoming and departing passengers has been instituted by the Venezuelan government. Censorship of mails and telegrams has been instituted. Activity of the insurgent faction has brought these government precautions.

KALLIPOLIS GROTTTO PAYS BAND HONORS

Musicians Feted in Banquet and Complimented for Showing at Richmond.

As a recognition of the splendid showing made by the military band of Kal-lipolis Grotto, No. 15, Mystic Order of Valley Prophets of the Enchanted Realm at the recent national convention in Richmond, members of the grotto and Masonic friends feted the musicians at a banquet last night at the Hudson Hotel.
The band won honors at Richmond for military showing and musical excellence.
The testimonial was arranged by P.
St. Paulman, monarch of the grotto; Edward S. Schmidt, grand orator of the order; Pete Latimer, and E. W. Libbey, who acted as toastmaster.
The speakers were Roe Fulkerson, who announced that he had thirty-two applications for membership in the grotto, from Harmony Lodge; Col. Robert Lee Montague, who spoke on the trip to Richmond; I. S. Goldsmith, in an Italian monologue, and Paul Groves in a colored dialect monologue.

Newport's Belles Wear Slit Skirts at Tennis

NEWPORT, June 25.—Slit skirts, open at the sides and in front, are the newest thing in women's wear for tennis at the Casino or on the lawns of the cottages.
And sometimes—only sometimes—the slits permit just a glimpse of white or blue or pink silk pantaloons that are gripped at dainty knees by elastic bands. The costume gives the wearers greater freedom of action before the nets, and has enabled some to add considerably to their proficiency in the game. For the blouses white ruffles is preferred as being the most comfortable and becoming.

Chinese Rebels Seize And Sack Kalgan City

SHANGHAI, June 25.—Mutinous Chinese troops and rebels seized the city of Kalgan, 125 miles north of Peking, in the province of Chi-Li, according to a dispatch received here. The city was sacked, but all the foreign residents are safe.
Kalgan is an important post on the Siberian caravan route.

Please Kill That Fly, Housekeepers Cry

Every boy and girl, during vacation period, is expected to assist in the eradication of the deadly typhoid fly.
Members of all the women's clubs in the District are to be enlisted in the campaign to lessen the fly population in Washington.

The Housekeepers' Alliance is interesting boys and girls, and the club women in the warfare. Placards illustrating the deadliness of the fly have been distributed by the Alliance, and members of the organization are encouraging people to kill the germ-carrying insects.
The Alliance points out that housewives can do much to decrease the fly menace by minimizing the breeding places of the insect, around their homes and killing the larvae where-ever found. Cleanliness is urged by the Alliance as a preventive of flies, and helpful suggestions for the sick room are included in the warnings sent out.

The activities of the Alliance are in charge of Miss Georgia Robertson, chairman of the Civic and sanitation committee.

"Our large placards illustrate the real danger of the fly," said Miss Robertson, "by showing how they multiply and how germs are carried on their feet and wings. Another pamphlet we are distributing is entitled 'Please Kill That Fly,' and it is filled with convincing arguments that the pests are a menace to health, to cleanliness, and to one's disposition when they pester you in the summer."
Kill that fly, now, says Miss Robertson.
